A Vanderbilt Christmas

Tuesday, December 12, 2017

See two of the magnificent Newport mansions decorated for the holidays, both built by the Vanderbilt family, Marblehouse and The Breakers. Marblehouse was built as an anniversary gift by William K. Vanderbilt for his wife, and it was the first of the "grand cottages" in Newport, a beautiful mansion clad in shimmering white marble. But, Marblehouse was soon eclipsed by "The Breakers," summer home of Williams' older brother, Cornelius II. The Breakers has never been surpassed, and is a magnificent property of the grandest scale! You'll tour both of these magnificent mansions decorated for the holidays. Then enjoy a guided tour of Newport, to learn about the history of the area, its famous residents and their adventures, see the many "summer homes" built during the Gilded Age, and take a scenic drive down Bellevue Avenue. A delicious lunch at the Brick Alley Pub is included, with some free time at the Brick Marketplace.
